Mr. Robert Campbell entered life on June 30th 1937 in Tampa Florida to the parentage of Josephine Campbell and Adolphus Larry.

Following the death of his mother in 1950 Robert was lovingly taken in by his Aunt Carriell Lowe and Uncle Isaiah Junk Lowe, and adopted as a brother by cousins Achelesse and Artirus Lowe.

Upon graduating from Middleton Senior High School in 1956 Robert joined the United States Air Force. Following duty assignments in Europe, Asia and the Pacific, Robert returned to Tampa and met Julie Campbell in 1966, and joined her in holy matrimony in 1970.

While still on active duty Robert was assigned to Langley Air Force Base, VA where he and Julie had two sons Nathaniel and Philip. Upon returning to Tampa Robert was honorably discharged after a distinguished twenty-two year career at MacDill Air Force base in 1978. Following his Air Force career Robert began a second career at the United States Post Office in Brandon Florida; Robert served many roles for twenty-eight years for the USPS and retired in 2008. Upon his retirement Robert was a devoted caregiver for Julie until her death in 2015.

Robert has been a faithful member of the Brandon Church of Christ since 1976. His devotion to Christ and the Church was evident to all and his sense of generosity and kindness was inspiring to many.

Robert was preceded in death by his parents, Josephine and Adolphus; his wife Julie; cousins Achelesse and Artirus.

He leaves to cherish precious memories of him with devoted sons, Nathaniel Campbell of Seffner Florida and Philip Campbell of Ft. Worth Texas; grandchildren, Mia Grant, Philip Jr., Lance, and Dorian Julie Campbell; nieces and nephews, Robert Atkins, Otis Baker and Shirley Mott; beloved cousins Johnnie, Darrell, Ronnie and Andre Stewart; beloved in-laws, Kate Cooper, Mary and Sydney Farley.
